

NWS

For over 25 years, we have been operating sea and land carrier solutions for perishable cargo in Latin America and the United States.

Now, at NWS, we want to share our know-how and bring a fresh, agile, and people-oriented new approach to logistics to the people who need it the most. Come what may.

THE HAMMERHEAD ROUTE

- Puerto Bolivar
- Paita
- Puerto Caldera
- Puerto Quetzal
- Port of Hueneme

Connections with:

We at NWS try hard not to get in the way of sea life. To create awareness, we named each of our routes like different sea-protected species.

Our Hammerhead route was based on the Hammerhead shark. An unusual name that comes from having a wide head shaped like a double-headed hammer with eyes and gills on the end. They are particularly threatened by the global shark fin trade because of the large size of their fins.
